DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 10-19 and 21-26 remain withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in Paper No. 12.

Specification

2. The amendment filed 13 November 2002 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132 because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132 states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows: At page 35, line 14 to page 36, line 9, the aforementioned section of the specification was replaced with a section that introduced the term "maximal" into the phrase "maximal velocity of carboxylation."

Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

- 3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:
 - The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.
- 4. Claims 27-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The amendment of 13 November 2002 introduced the term "maximal" into claims 29 and 30, claims that depend from claim 27. The specification has not been shown to provide adequate support for this term. Acknowledgement is made of applicant's remarks where at page 4 of the response of 13 November 2002, hereinafter the response, applicant asserts that one of skill in the art would have understood that "maximal velocity" was being implied when the term "velocity" had been used previously. This assertion of support has not been found persuasive. It is well settled that "[I]t is not enough for purposes of written description requirement of Section 112 that the disclosure, when combined with the knowledge in the art, would lead one to speculate as to modification that the inventor might have envisioned, but failed to disclose." Lockwood v. American Airlines Inc. (Fed. Cir. March 1997) 41 USQP2d 1961 at 1966. Further, a check of the prior art finds other modifiers associated with the term "velocity." In particular, Fredericks et al., makes reference to "initial velocity" in characterizing the rate of another enzymatic reaction. Accordingly, the specification does not provide adequate support for the newly added verbiage.

Conclusion

- 5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).
- 6. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37

CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
